COLUMBUS, OH --- Leading driver Chris Page added three more wins to his seasonal total at Scioto Downs on Thursday night.

Page kicked off the evening by piloting the Western Hanover freshman filly Latin Lyric to an easy-does-it 1:57.4 victory for owners Jennifer Brown and Gary Cook and trainer Brian Brown. It was the first career start for the filly. She defeated Lima Chic and Pat's Flash by 4-3/4 lengths after setting all the fractions.

In addition to the young pacing filly, Page also won with an old trotting gelding when he drove Go-Spread The Word as the 12-year-old led all the way to win in 2:01.2. The son of Carry The Message has now won both of his 2010 starts for owner-trainer Vincent Golden of Westerville, Ohio.

Page's final score came in the last race when Eagle Winter, a sophomore pacing filly broke her maiden for trainer Jack Fisher and owner Sharon Kay Fisher of Circleville. She won by 1-3/4 lengths over Do Ya Wanna Rumba and favored Lady Of The Future in 1:59.1.
